Red Cross Campaign

Who's Who?

March's Red Cross Campaign is truly an excellent example of the old saying, 'Many Hands Make Light Work,' in action. Coordinators and canvassers are once again combining their efforts to raise funds for the many programs which are encompassed under the Red Cross banner.

Violet McFadyen is this year's Honorary Coordinator, following 8 years as Area Campaign Coordinator. She has been replaced in that capacity by Margaret White, whose role includes overseeing the campaign in the Elk Point, Heinsburg, Lindbergh, Clandonald and Landonville areas. Monica Buksa is the Assistant Coordinator.

This area is represented at provincial level by Margaret Modin, who is part of the Divisional Board of Management.

Our apologies for last week's Red Cross story, which failed to mention Mrs. McFadyen and also failed to clarify the major roles these ladies play in the campaign. Two names were also omitted from the list of canvassers: Margaret (Peggy) Anderson of the Elk Point area, and Lois Kozack of Clandonald, while Horace Osinchuk was listed under Elk Point rather than Landonville.

Some confusion also resulted from information obtained from a provincial Red Cross press release. The funds collected in the Elk Point area did not go toward the swimming lessons, except in a minimal, roundabout way. Red Cross now provides only training for instructors, plus informational brochures and badges, for the swimming program. Elk Point Lions Club has kindly taken over the operation of the swimming lessons for the past two seasons, including last year. Funds for the program come largely from fees paid by the students. Funds from the Red Cross Campaign go directly to the Provincial Red Cross.

Water Source Grant Announced

EDMONTON: Alberta Transportation and Utilities Minister Al 'Boomer' Adair, and St. Paul MLA John Drobot made an announcement on February 28 of a grant of $6000 to assist the Town of Elk Point with investigating new water sources.

The grant from Alberta Transportation and Utilities will cover 50 per cent of the cost to investigate new sources of water

Nutrition Month Declared In Elk Point

Mayor Bruce Kleeberger declares March, 1990, will be Nutrition Month in Elk Point. The Canada wide campaign encourages good nutrition for good health, says Elk Point Hospital's dietician, Charlotte Engstrom, who is a member of the Lakeland Nutrition Month Committee.

Canada Day planning underway

It may be just barely beginning to look like spring is around the corner, but plans are already underway for the July 1 Canada Day celebrations.

Chairman Lawrence Pidluzny and his committee met for the second time last week, with applications for funding, letters encouraging involvement by community groups, and basic planning for the schedule of events included on the agenda.

This year's theme is the United Nations International Year of Literacy, and the committee plans to include special events which will tie in with that theme.

Many groups and organizations have already indicated their willingness to take part in the day-long event. Elk Point Lioness Club will once again spearhead planning for the parade, while the Lions Club and Fire Department again plan to pool their efforts toward the beeffest. The Elks Lodge will continue their tradition of sponsoring the Pie Eating Contest, while the OORP has been approached to bake the giant birthday cake. Elk Point Oilettes have indicated an interest in once again running the Children's Games.

A review of last year's event showed that the fireworks display of the previous years had been sorely missed. The committee will look into putting this colorful, though costly, item back on to the agenda for 1990.

New councillors sworn in

Two new members joined Elk Point Town Council at Monday night's meeting, with Charlie Mahon and Louis Verhagen filling empty chairs left by the resignation of Alvina Schuhmacher and by a withdrawal at the time of last October's general election. The new members were sworn in by a tanned Mayor Bruce Kleeberger, who returned just hours earlier from a winter vacation.

The full complement of councillors dealt swiftly and efficiently with a lengthy agenda in just over two hours, which included three visitors to the regular meeting.

Elk Point Hospital Dietician Charlotte Engstrom, representing the Lakeland Nutrition Month Committee, presented a proclamation for Mayor Kleeberger's signature, declaring March as Nutrition Month in Elk Point, and quipping 'If you eat well for good health, you won't need to see the dietician or the dentist.'

The first person to be honored under the Town's new Municipal Employees' Service Award Program, Mrs. Carolina Mayner, was on hand for the presentation of a memento marking five years of service as the Town's Playschool teacher, as of February 25, 1990.

The third visitor had a less happy errand, as she was seeking Council's compassion regarding a huge water bill resulting from a broken water line in a temporarily unoccupied home owned by herself, which caused over 2000 cubic meters of water to be discharged before the rupture was discovered. This matter was sent to committee for further study, as the Town has no precedent established in such incidents.

Council agreed to apply for four positions under the Summer Employment Experience Development program, with all four allocated to maintenance of parks and boulevards.

School crosswalk safety concerns were again a topic of discussion. Correspondence from Superintendent of Schools Ted Cabaj has indicated that no substantial changes in traffic patterns due to the upcoming school expansion are foreseen. This will allow the Town to study appropriate means of facilitating a permanent street closure in the area during afternoon dismissal.

The employment of a bylaw enforcement officer on a contract basis was discussed, with the Finance and Administrative Committee directed to develop a suitable contract to be offered to the potential contractor.

Bylaw 503 / 90, amending the General Municipal Bylaw 437 / 86, which had been the subject of a well attended public hearing and sparked the presentation of a 203-name petition, was offered for second reading, and went down to defeat by a unanimous vote.

A second change to the General

Municipal Bylaw, this time regarding a parcel across Highway 41 from the Hilltop Motor Inn and north of 57 Avenue, was brought to Council in the form of Bylaw 504 / 90, which was given first reading. A public hearing was set for 6:30 p.m. on Monday, March 19 on the bylaw.

Bylaw 505 / 90, amending Land Use Bylaw 450 / 87, also was given first reading, and will be the subject of a public hearing at 6:45 p.m. on March 19.

With the results of a vote by the members of the Pioneer Circle showing 49 in favor of participating in the proposed Community Services Centre, as compared to 22 opposed, Council pondered the next step to be taken in the implementation of the Feasibility Study Action Plan. It was decided to meet with the Board of Education, if possible, to determine if the proposed building site is available before forming an action committee to get planning for the Centre underway.

Community Services News

By Stephen Montgomery

The presentation, Understanding Grief, scheduled for February 28, was cancelled due to insufficient registrations. We would still like to offer this program and we will when we have enough registrations. In this presentation you will learn about: stages in the normal grief process; coping strategies for those who may be grieving; and how to help someone who may be grieving. The cost is only $3 and all proceeds will be used to purchase books on Death and Dying for the Elk Point Public Library. To register, phone Community Services at 724-3800.

A support group for women who are child sexual abuse survivors is being formed in Elk Point. This group will meet once a week and will be led by experienced counselling professionals. If you have been a victim of sexual abuse as a child and want to be involved with this group, phone the St. Paul Crisis Centre at 645-5132.

Community Services and the County of St. Paul FCSS are sponsoring a Youth Recreation Group for youth ages 11 to 15. The group will meet every Thursday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Community Services Building. There will be videos and music, sports and games, special events such as dances and trips, and other activities to be decided by the group. Stephen and Bridget Montgomery will be working with the program, but anyone who wants to get involved is encouraged to phone Stephen at 724-3800. Or come down and join us on Thursday at 7:00 p.m. The cost for youth is $1 per evening and this includes refreshments.

Metelytsia dancers

By Margaret Bayduza

The Elk Point Mini Telerama was a great success. We'd like to give a pat on the back to everyone in Elk Point and surrounding district who contributed to this event. The senior Metelytsia dancers were again invited by Mike Daryll to perform at the main Telerama in Edmonton, We danced on Sunday afternoon, February 4, and we hope all of you managed to catch it.

Our dancers are once more entered in the Prince Albert dance competitions. Last year we brought home several medals and trophies (displayed at Dave's Pizza), and we hope to do as well this year.

The Eleventh Annual year end Spring Concert will be held Wednesday evening, May 2. We have 6 groups this year, from our 4 year old pre-beginners to our adult class. It is promising to be a great show.

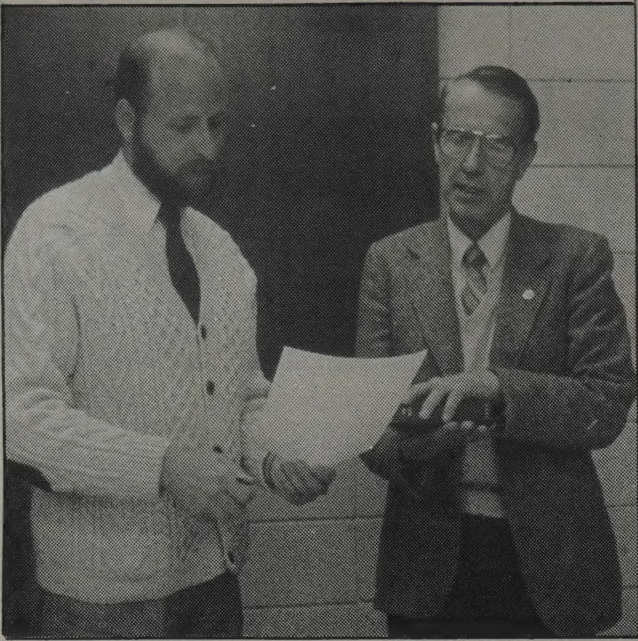

We are having a bingo on Thursday, March 15, at Club Bingo in St. Paul.

Water grant

for the town, as a result of decreasing water levels in the Atimowe Creek and Hook Lake which presently supply water to the community.

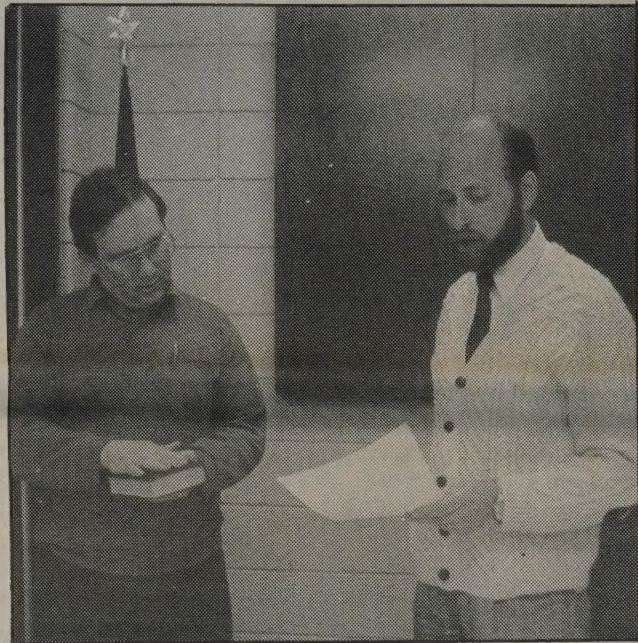

Mr. Adair said, 'I am pleased to be assisting the Town of Elk Point. This project is an example of good foresight and planning, to ensure citizens are always able to rely on the convenience of good water in their households.'

Mr. Drobot added, 'This raw water supply investigation is a significant step to identify alternative sources of water, in consideration of declining supplies elsewhere. I know citizens will benefit in the long term from this support by Alberta Transportation and Utilities.'

New Councillors Sworn In

Elk Point Town Council is back at full strength, following the swearing in of new Council members Louis Verhagen (above) and Charles Mahon (bottom picture) by Mayor Bruce Kleeberger at Monday's regular meeting.

Further Education News

Further Education has two Jewelry courses being offered. One 'Friendly Plastics' is scheduled on Saturday, March 10. On Saturday, March 17, we are offering a 'Fimo and Leather' Jewelry course.

More people are needed to register for "Soap Making", starting Wednesday, March 14. This course is 4 sessions long.

If we have eight people interested in 'Infant / Child First Aid & CPR', we will reschedule this course.

Interested in learning how to Western Dance? Sign up for our dancing course being held April 7, in the evening and April 8.

In April, Further Education plans to offer a course on how to sew a "No Sweat" jacket. This course would be held on a Saturday.

A photography course has been scheduled starting Wednesday, April 25. This course is two sessions, costing $7.50

Gadowski Rink Takes Grand Challenge

Wayne Smith presents the Canadian Salt Company trophies to Leonard Gadowski, Murray Babcock, Les Meger and Ryan Thomas. Second place went to Bonnyville curlers Dave Dwan, Robert Hellum, Rob Sperber and Everett Smith.

Gadowski skips mens' open champs

Leonard Gadowski skipped the Grand Challenge winners at this weekend's Elk Point Men's Open Bonspiel, with his final rock in the 10th end of the championship game only a fraction of an inch closer to the button than that of Bonnyville competitor Dave Dwan, and a measure needed to determine the winner. The two teams had a very close final all the way through, and were tied up going into the final end. Richard Lavoie's rink placed third in the Grand Challenge event, with D. Harlton, Edmonton, taking fourth prize.

Two St. Paul rinks squared off for the Second Event final, with Orest Paulichuk scoring a narrow victory over Mike Warholik. John Zayonce skipped the third place rink, while Allan Berg's foursome placed fourth.

In the Third Event, Steve Penz edged out Glendon's Johnnie Doonanco, with Lynall Slywka taking third place honors and Wayne Hanson placing fourth.

This coming weekend will see the year's largest contingent of curlers take to the ice in the Seventh Annual Oilmen's Bonspiel, which starts Thursday morning with an official opening ceremony at 10:30 a.m., and carries on through the weekend.

Second Event

Third Event

Five Years With Playschool

Mayor Bruce Kleeberger presents Jack and Jill Playschool teacher Carolina Mayner with an engraved memento in recognition of her five years of service in that capacity, with the Town of Elk Point. This is the first presentation to be made under the Town's new Municipal Employees Service Award Program.

Welcome, curlers

Once again, oil industry personnel from a wide area are about to converge on Elk Point for the Oilmen's Bonspiel. This is the seventh year for the event, which has carried on through boom times and times of depressed oil prices, with very little slackened enthusiasm even when the future of the industry looked bad.

It is a valuable experience for these individuals to enjoy a time of leisure and sportsmanship together, after a year of being boss and employee, supplier and customer, head office and field personnel. On the ice, job descriptions and titles fade away and everyone is just out to curl and have a good time. You might never know that the grumpy fellow who wants his parts yesterday is a really nice guy who shares many of your interests, unless you meet him in person away from the workplace.

Elk Point is once again pleased to have these many visitors come to town, to enjoy our hospitality and to have a look at our corner of beautiful north-eastern Alberta. Our accommodation, food service and shopping facilities will be pleased to take care of your needs in a courteous fashion, to add to your weekend's enjoyment.

Have a fine time, everyone, and please think about coming back to see us again in the summertime. Elk Point has a lot to offer vacationers, and we would be delighted to show you our fine fishing and boating, comfortable campsites and other attractions in the area.

To laugh is to live

By Irene Magnusson

Laughter is the spice of life, the sugar in the coffee, the cream on the milk. Laughter is healthful and leads to a longer life. It isn't always polite or kind to laugh at our fellow man, but it surely helps if we can learn to laugh at ourselves now and then.

Laughter, it is said, is the best medicine - for almost anything. I offer here a few bits and pieces which I hope will provoke your funny bone. First, a list of inventions needed:

1. A 50-minute hour, for those who wish to work shorter hours.
2. A 22.5 hour day, for those requesting a shorter working day.
3. Six by twelve inch cheques, for families who need bigger pay cheques.
4. A Producer's Union for Parents, so they could retaliate against striking teachers by not producing any kids.
5. Twenty dollar bills made of latex, so we could stretch our incomes a little further.
6. A five-day weekend, for unionized labor.
7. Books printed from finish to beginning, for those who always read the last page first.
8. Donut shaped (two)-dollar bills, for those of us who can't make ends meet.

Oh, well. If my jokes don't make you laugh, just laugh at me, trying to make you laugh!

Don't judge a man by his accomplishments, but by how hard he is trying.

A bit over a hundred years ago, Charles Stilwell, of Fremont, Ohio, invented the brown paper bag, with the flat bottom, able to stand upright while being stuffed with groceries. Well, he invented the machine to make them with - so millions of them could be made.

It says in my book, that America uses them at the rate of forty billion per year, but said book was printed in 1987, my imagination says they went out like the dodo, when those nasty little plastic bags were introduced. Now we are being urged to create (buy, build or borrow) cloth bags to carry our vittles home in, and use them forever more, so as to lessen the garbage heaps. I knew there must be some way to get rid of those miserable plastic bags.

There are a few marriage customs still around, that have some far-out origins. For example, the "best man", in days of olde, the groom went out and, quite literally, captured his bride, and required a sturdy helper to go along, to help fight off the family when they came to rescue their maiden. Naturally, this took a pretty good fellow so he became the 'best man'.

Engagement rings have been fashionable since the early 1500's, and perhaps long before; symbol of a bargain having been struck. One wee princess got fitted for an engagement ring at age two, fortunately her intended groom didn't have to wear one, as he was new-born at the time, a matter settled for the two regal infants by the families.

Another quaint custom of the good olde days was the wedding cake, but the bride was not supposed to eat it, she got it thrown at her. That was to ensure her fertility, so she would have numerous children. Wheat was used to throw over the bride, before rice, and again, fertility. The unmarried maidens scrambled for the grains (as they do now for the bouquet).

"You can always take a day off, but you can never put it back". That is someone else's observation, very apt. I would like to add that we only get to spend each day once, and they slide by a lot more pleasantly with smiles and laughter than they do with gripes and groans.

Aware that her husband couldn't resist sampling anything she'd baked, a wee wifie left a note on the tray of cinnamon rolls fresh from the oven; "Counted - one dozen." Off she went to do her shopping. On her return she found the dozen minus two, and a note which said: "Think metric".

Reading the notes dropped into a suggestion box outside his office, the boss was heard by his secretary, mumbling, "I wish these employees would be more specific. What kind of a kite? Which lake?"

Table manners have not been perfected yet, perhaps; still, they have changed a bit since days of yore. In a listing of table manners, these are mentioned: 13th century "A number people gnaw a bone and then put it back in the dish; this is a serious offence."

14th century: "You should not poke your teeth with your knife, as some do; it is a bad habit."

15th century: "It is bad manners to dip food into the salt." At some era in time: "If you cannot swallow a piece of food, turn around discreetly and throw it somewhere." I have picked out the least offensive rules (the acts were much more offensive than the rules). Instructions from an Ancient Greek, on code of ethics (in 2500 B.C.); To please a superior (or your host) "Laugh when he laughs." I'm sure that one still holds true.

Confucious (or someone) says; "The thing to try when all else fails is again." and "Many a man has failed because he had a wishbone where his backbone should be." So giggle and grin 'til I see you agin.

Letter to the Editor

Wunder Dogs wonder "What next?"

Dear Editor:

I am writing you this letter in response to a decision made at Council on February 19, 1990 and which appeared in the February 21st issue of the Lakeland Review. This being that the Wunder Dogs find another place for practice sessions.

Mostly, I would like to have the facts set straight. The original space rented by myself was the old courthouse, which was to be used for Obedience Classes as well as practice for the Wunder Dogs when needed. Unfortunately the court moved back to their original building. Mr. Vincent was more than helpful as he realized my classes run for 10 weeks and space would be needed for that length of time. In making arrangements with Mr. Montgomery, he also was more than helpful in making arrangements for the move to the gym at the Community Services Building after 2 weeks of classes. May I comment that I am glad that it has been recorded properly in its name. (It is a Community Services Building not the F.C.S.S. Building, isn't it?).

Needless to say, with only 2 more classes to teach and graduation we were "kicked out" but that's fine too. I am not one to get mad and frustrated. I can thank Mr. Vincent for helping to come up with suggestions for 3 more measly weeks for space which consists of utilizing a building for 3 hours on Sundays. Also to John Oryschuk for letting me use his building and Tony Bochon for moving his trucks out of the building which he rents from Mr. Oryschuk for me to complete my course. It is pleasing to know there are people still willing to go out of their way to accomodate someone in a pinch.

A few more facts, the concern conveyed to myself was that one of the children in the playschool has allergies. I can sympathize with that as one of my 86 allergies is also dogs. Therefore I swept all the floors after we were through and also offered to mop and disinfect with the supplies I use at my kennels as they were concerned with the extra janitorial expense. But of course that was not satisfactory. I guess the saying I have heard in my travels is becoming more true everyday, "The more people I meet, the more I like my dogs."

Thank you for letting me release my steam as I don't feel that I am a person who has centered my life on one interest, namely dogs, and have not given to the community in which I live. Therefore I don't consider my comments irrational. I would like to point out a few things that were done that I feel were irrational and would not have been done had it not involved dogs.

1. I was not aware the issue was to be discussed about the dogs and was not present nor given the opportunity to express any opinion or hear the discussion. It was brought up, discussed and decided all in one meeting.

2. All I received was a phone call, that I imagine was delegated by the so called Board, that we were no longer allowed to use the gym at the Community Services building. I never got a letter or anything else.

3. Upon reading the paper the next week I noted the part "as their (Wunder Dogs) use is perceived as a health risk". In my dictionary, perceive means - to be or become aware of through the senses; see, hear, taste, smell or feel. Therefore I assume that there was no health report filed (possibly a phone call) or nobody that would stand up and say "It is not that big of a deal considering the building is in the condition it's in and the fact that the dogs in these classes are owned by responsible owners. Otherwise they would not be there to make their pets enjoyable animals that they can accept in their homes. Your flea bitten varmints are the ones on the street that the irresponsible owners wouldn't waste the time to bother to train". So let's go full stream, your next step is the hospital board to stop our pet visits. We have never heard an unkind word about the visits there once a month.

Again, I leave you with my mind at ease that I have had my say and that I did it in writing. My class will graduate in two weeks and I thank all my students for coming out to train in the parking lot last week as we were not allowed in the building and for persevering with me in the changes of your place of class.

Yours truly,
Karen Reed

Books Can Help

Library Board Chairperson Louise Krissa (left), Community Services Director Stephen Montgomery and County of St. Paul FCSS Director Linnette Newby proudly display the new self-help books which were donated by those two groups to the library last week.

New books to help cope with daily living

By Billie Milholland
Stresses and strains of daily living get the best of all of us at one time or another and there are many tough situations where simply talking to a friend or getting advice from Phil or Oprah is not enough. Frustration is a regular visitor in our lives and when we need more than a headache pill to cope with it, it is good to know that a wide variety of material is available at our local library.

On Thursday, March 12, 1990, Louise Krissa, chairperson of the Elk Point Public Library Board, gratefully accepted a generous donation of self-help materials from the St. Paul County FCSS and Elk Point Community Services. Linnette Newby, the County FCSS Director, indicated that, since 50 percent of the patrons of the library are from the County, it was appropriate and timely for the County to donate to the library's self-help collection. Stephen Montgomery, Elk Point's Community Services Director, is actively involved in making self-help literature more accessible to the public. He is concerned with the placement of these materials so that people who need them can find them easily, and is working with Doreen Mayner to organize an effective placement system.

Some of the new books that you can access, include books from the Coping series: Coping With Death, Coping With Step-Families, Coping With Date Rape, Coping With Fear. There are books on life choices, on prenatal, pre-school, pre-teen, premarital and prevention subjects. There is even a book on how to cope with the death of a pet. Of interest to parents concerned with the safety of their children, there is a new set of videos which concentrate on bike safety, first aid, school bus safety, what to do if you get lost in the woods. Stop in and look at the self-help collection, you will be amazed at how many aspects of your life are covered.

Elks down Kitscoty 3 straight

Elk Point Elks downed the Sask-Alta League's season leading Kitscoty Monarchs in three straight games last week to win the best-of-five quarter final series.

The first game was played in Kitscoty early in the week and ended in a 3-5 victory for Elk Point.

Thursday, the series came to Elk Point for a very exciting and high scoring game. Richard Marcoux and Jim Vinge led the scoring for the Elks with three goals apiece, with Murray Cochrane adding a pair and Mike Boratyne and Vic Stepa adding singles. Assists came from Lane Lorensen (3), Alain Leclerc (3), John Wozniak (2), Murray Cochrane (2), Vic Stepa, Terry Isaacson, Willie Lesyk and Richard Marcoux.

Darwin Presley scored 3 for the Monarchs, with Curtis Brown adding a pair and Harv Bexson, Rod Mabbott, Dean Reinhart and Larry Bexson each scoring one goal. Assisting the goals were Harv Bexson (3), Kim Schau (2), Rod Mabbott (2), Vern Bexson, Darwin Presley, Dean Reinhart, Terry Bexson, Phil Bexson, Greg West, Curt Orbeck and Curtis Brown.

An 8-8 tie at the end of regulation time sent the game into a ten minute overtime period, during which the Elks scored twice to Kitscoty's once, for a 10-9 win.

The fierce competition between the two teams led to 99 minutes in penalties, plus a game misconduct for each team and a gross misconduct for Kitscoty.

Sunday's game in Kitscoty was another exciting contest. Murray Cochrane was quick to put the Elks on the scoreboard just over two minutes into the first period, off an assist by Terry Wozniak. Kitscoty replied 31 seconds later with a goal by Dean Reinhart, assisted by Larry Bexson to tie the score. Cochrane put the Elks out in front with an unassisted goal two minutes later, and started a scoring streak which had the Elks leading 6-1 at the end of the second period, thanks to goals by Kerry Loughran and Jim Vinge, unassisted, and two by Terry Wozniak, assisted by Cochrane on both and by Kerry Loughran on the first.

Early in the third period, Kitscoty seemed to get their second wind, and set off on a scoring spree of their own, which left the game in a 6-6 tie at the end of regulation time. Dean Reinhart scored twice for the Monarchs, with Larry Bexson, Curtis Brown and Harv Bexson adding singles, and assists provided by Curtis Brown, Vern Bexson (3), Dean Reinhart, Larry Bexson and Darwin Presley.

The first period of overtime remained scoreless, with Kerry Loughran providing the tiebreaking goal four minutes and 11 seconds into the second overtime period, off an assist by Terry Wozniak, to give the Elks the game and the series.

Stop The Press!

Late word just received before press time indicates that Kitscoty has protested the results of the second game of this series, on the grounds that the overtime was a full period rather than sudden death, which would have given the Monarchs the win. A Sask-Alta League meeting was called for Tuesday night to make a decision on the protest. Keep tuned to your radio for further developments on this matter.

Office Administration
(Secretarial Arts)

Today's business settings are sophisticated! Even the smallest offices now use word processing and computer technology. And, more than ever before, employers are seeking strong organizational and communication skills. Office administration training opens the door to employment in many business settings and geographic locations.

This one-year program allows you to specialize as an accounting clerk, clerk-typist, stenographer or general secretary. It also emphasizes professional etiquette, communications and decision-making skills. Classes are delivered in a realistic office atmosphere so that you can immediately put theory to practical use. Before you graduate you'll gain experience and confidence through a practicum in an actual business setting.

Major areas of study include:

- Computers
- Typewriting
- Business English/Communications
- Accounting
- Office Procedures
- Shorthand

PROGRAM START: September, 1990
DAYS: Monday to Friday
HOURS: 9:00 - 4:00

We are currently taking applications. REGISTER IMMEDIATELY to ensure a position within the program. Program delivery is subject to agency funding.

Bonnyville Pee Wee Sabres

Elk Point area hockey players Aaron Aarbo and Darcy Pankiw are among the fine players on the Bonnyville Pee Wee Sabres, who won Provincial Double AA silver last weekend.

Local boys win double AA silver

After having a very successful year playing for the Elk Point Golden Eagles in 1989, Aaron Aarbo and his right winger Darcy Pankiw tried out for the Bonnyville Sabres AA PeeWee team. The boys not only made the team but were one of the top lines.

During Christmas break, the Bonnyville Sabres participated in the Red Deer Pee Wee Tournament, coming home with the AA Championship, after beating out a triple AAA team from Calgary in the finals. The Sabres also went on to place first in the East Central Double AA League. Aaron Aarbo was in the top 10 points standing throughout the whole season in the East Central Double AA League.

Then to complete an already outstanding year, the Sabres won Zone 2 AA championships, beating out Fort Saskatchewan's Triple AAA team in the last round. In this round Aaron and Darcy's line was just outstanding.

Over the past weekend, the Sabres went to Spruce Grove to play in their Double AA Pee Wee Provincial Playoffs, going undefeated in their pool and beating Grande Prairie in the semi-finals. Although the Sabres had beaten Spruce Grove in the first go-round, placed higher in the league play and were leading after the second period in the Championship game, they were defeated 5-4 by Spruce Grove, ending up with the silver medals.

Congratulations, boys, and although you travelled to Bonnyville to play Double AA hockey, you have represented Elk Point well both on and off the ice.

Bantam Elks win zone

Elk Point Bantam Elks visited Marwayne Friday night at 8:00 p.m. for Game One of a two game, total point series to gain a spot in Provincial Bantam 'C' playoffs, which will be held in Coronation on March 16, 17 and 18.

Boy, did they look lost the first period and a half! Down 4 to 2 half way through the second period, the boys turned on their lights and showed Marwayne they could play hockey, coming out victorious with a 7-4 score. Game Two in Elk Point Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. began even worse than the game in Marwayne. Down 5-0 after nearly 2 periods, Elk Point got their first goal with 45 seconds left in the period. In the third period, Elk Point came out all fired up, scored 3 more goals, lost the game 5-4, but won the series 11-9.

Thanks, fans for the good support and good luck in Coronation, Bantams!

What's news at the library?

The staff and board of Elk Point Public Library would like to thank the boards of Family and Community Support Services, County of St. Paul No. 19 and Community Services, Town of Elk Point for their donations to help upgrade the collection of family education and prevention material held in the library. Come into the library and browse through this special display.

Among these new books are: Relief From Migraine by Rosemary Dudley—the essential program for the sufferer and family and friends; a series of coping books: Coping With Step-Families; Coping With Divorce; Coping With Academic Anxiety; Coping With Weight Problems; Coping With Discrimination; Coping With Sexual Problems; Coping With School Age Motherhood; Coping With Death; Coping With Your Fears; Coping With Social Situations; Coping With

Date Rape and Acquaintance Rape; Coping With Changing Values; Coping With School Age Fatherhood; Coping With AIDS: Facts and Fears; Coping With Family Illness: Why Me? and Coping Through Assertiveness.

We also have a collection of six videos about safety programs for children. The titles are: I'm No Fool With A Bicycle / I'm No Fool as a Pedestrian; First Aid Test / Recreational Safety Test; School Safety Test / Traffic Safety Test; Lost In The Woods; Ridin' Cool To School and Mr. Neverlearn Meets The Firefighters.

A happier, healthier, longer life for the millions who are Sick And Tired Of Being Sick And Tired by Neil Solomon, M. D. —Profound Sensitivity Syndrome slowly saps your health and vitality. Discover how you can reprogram your emotions, hormones and immune defences to combat this potential killer.

Breastfeeding Your Baby by Shiela Kitzinger—The complete guide for every new mother-to-be who seeks knowledge, encouragement and self-confidence to breastfeed her baby.

Diabetes: A Beyond Basics Guide by Rowan Hillson—This book will help you control diabetes instead of letting it control you.

My Teenager Is Driving Me Crazy by Joyce L. Vedral, Ph. D.—A parent's complete guide to those turbulent, exasperating years called adolescence.

Does someone you love have heart disease? Here's help at last for your needs and worries! Heartmates by Roda F. Levin is a survival guide for the cardiac spouse.

Women Married To Alcoholics by Morris Kokin—A woman's guide to enduring and overcoming her mate's drinking problem.

Making Children Mind Without Losing Yours by Dr. Kevin Leman—How to bring out the best in your children without letting them get the better of you!

Starscope

By Eileen Norby

Aries

ARIES

You have an adventurous spirit this week. You are extremely direct in your approach. You need to express yourself, perhaps more strongly than other signs and this gives you such a powerful drive, blazing new trails.

TAURUS

You are persistent and determined, very strong-willed. You lack a feeling of security. You need to dig in and have roots. You need confidence. It's your key to a good marriage, career, your bull symbol what else. Stand tall.

GEMINI

You are the Sign of the Twins. You can be adaptable and logical to the point of being able to go from one extreme to the next. You have a very talkative flair, always youthful and modernistic in appearance. Your flaws show, restless, changeable, cunning, of two-faces, two sides.

CANCER

How can anyone get you away from your moods? Your imagination is vivid. Your emotions run very deep and under the right circumstances they will gush out. On the other side of the coin, you will swim in self-pity. You're hard to understand or endure at times. You are tenacious.

LEO

Leo is known to bring sunshine into the lives of others. You can be easily hurt because you are so sensitive lately. Someone is snubbing you. You have very good thought processes. Mix more. Do not pay more than five dollars for Lottery. 17, 27, 33, use these numbers. Good luck.

VIRGO

Too many strings attached, cut loose, for yourself as well as others. You never shun your responsibilities. Diet conscious lately. You feel lumpy & heavy so for health-sake, it's a very good idea. Your star pattern is good, mixing and matching, forming a serious alliance with one.

LIBRA

You dislike quarrels. Turn on the charm and win this person over, yet you are wrong! Once your mind is made up there's no change for you.

Lately you are breezy and frivolous, growing hot or cold! Always remember to take time for fun. All work & no play!

Welcome, Oilmen, to Elk Point's

President's Message

Dear Curlers:

On behalf of the Elk Point Oilmen's Association I would like to welcome you and your guests to our Seventh Annual Bonspiel. We are pleased to have so many of our friends return year after year. As well, welcome to the newcomers taking part in our bonspiel. We hope that you enjoy yourselves.

To our many sponsors, a big 'Thank You.' Without your support we would be unable to put on our bonspiel.

My thanks and congratulations to the committee for a job well done.

Good luck and good curling!!!

Mike Glover

President, Elk Point Oilmen's Association.

Mayor's Message

On behalf of Town Council and the residents of Elk Point, I welcome all of your curlers, bonspielers and guests to the 7th Annual Elk Point Oilmen's Curling Bonspiel, March 8-11, 1990.

This bonspiel has in previous years been a very popular event in our community enabling many people employed and involved in the oil industry to make or renew friendships. I trust that the participants of this bonspiel will once again be greeted by the warm hospitality of our community.

I would like to thank and congratulate the bonspiel committee for organizing this event and wish all of the participants a very successful and enjoyable curling bonspiel.

Good luck and good curling.

Red Cross

When did you come to Elk Point?

By Irene Magnusson

Sometimes, when we think of Red Cross, we may assume that it has been here, doing its thing, forever. But that is not, of course, the case.

Red Cross, like all good things, had a beginning.

Actively involved in alleviating suffering, in any of its many forms, Red Cross has been in Alberta for 75 years. So way back in 1915, even before I was born, Red Cross groups and individuals have been quietly going about the many tasks they have given themselves over the years, probably rolling bandages, packing health kits, (and unhealthy kits, like cigarettes for the soldiers) in those war years.

Later, the disaster relief, the blood donor program, tracing of missing persons, the work done with and for veterans (of both wars) were added. Red Cross Youth programs were instigated, International relief work developed, loans of sickroom equipment, water and small craft safety programs, fitness training for seniors - all of these have been added over the years; but the one overall plan has remained the same; to alleviate the sufferings of our fellow man.

I have not been able, so far, to determine the exact person who organized a group in Elk Point. I'm still searching. However, we do know there was an active group in the early 1950's. Margaret Modin, in 1952 or '53, was the first Campaign Manager, the Zone Charter was obtained sometime around then. Dr. Anne Weigerinck was an active member, and was Chairman for some years. Others active then were Florence McDonnell, Lena Stepa, Anne Buck, Helen Kovachs, and many others.

I seem to remember sessions when we carefully folded little squares of gauze, to become suitable bandages. We learned a lot about the work of Red Cross in other lands, we had Blood Donor Clinics (perhaps only in St. Paul?) and the big bugaboo then was "Have you ever had Hepatitis?" - not "AIDS".

The group collected used clothing, and made quilts and baby clothes, for those suffering disasters, namely house-fires, locally. These were stored in some willing member's home, until such time as the need came.

That got to be a bit of an unwieldy burden, as donations at first were huge, and the demand not so great. Many things were given to anyone who needed them, never mind the disaster, just to keep the quantity down. Eventually, that aspect was turned over to the UCW in Elk Point, and became the nucleus of their "Rummage Store".

At one time we raised a bit of funds for a 'clean water' project in India. Later the Water Safety program came up, and of course, Elk Point Red Cross sent people to train to become instructors, and then carried on an active Water Safety program for years, out at Whitney Lake. The procedures of that program have changed, over the years, but Red Cross still is the umbrella organization.

Elk Point Red Cross Branch combines with the Lindbergh Red Cross Branch, to become the Elk Point Red Cross Zone (or Region) under the long-time chairmanship of Margaret Modin. Each branch continues to hold meetings, create and sell, or donate, many articles, quilts, afghans, all sorts of knitted wear, crafts, etc., to Red Cross Headquarters. As well, most years a fund-raising Tea and Sale is held, and all members participate in the March Campaign for funds. In fact, many persons help with the Annual Campaign who perhaps do not consider themselves 'members', but see it as a useful and worthwhile cause, so pitch in and do what they can.

Then, too, there are those - or their families - who have benefited directly from Red Cross, either through disaster relief, or Blood Donor services, and wish to show their gratitude.

If you read through the list of officials in Red Cross work, the volunteer Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Directors, etc., you would see a lot of men's names listed (after all, men like to run things) - but do not think they only show up for executive-type jobs. There have been a number of very good canvassers in our area who were men, and still are active supporters.

Elk Point is merely the central space for the area canvassed by Red Cross here; the surrounding area goes out many miles. It is hoped every home will be approached and a request made for a contribution to the Red Cross's work, on your behalf, to better the lives of our fellowmen. Your part will be to give, as generously as you can, when the canvasser calls. Volunteer effort is the backbone of the Red Cross, and Dollars are the legs it walks on. Both are needed, to do a decent job.
